

Helping A Man Grow In His Relationship With God

Remember: Telling Is Not Teaching

How will you introduce the topic: Why have a Quiet Time? What descriptions will you use to share your own heart for spending time with God?

How will you help him connect with God and learn to listen to what God is saying to him.

How important is your Q.T to God? Explain.

Other names used for a Q.T.

- Devotional time
- Soul care time
- Time alone with God
- Personal worship time
- Appointment with God
- Time of intimate fellowship with God
- My Daily conversation with God
- Growing my relationship with God time

What scripture passages and verses will you use to support the importance of a Q.T.?

What can we learn from Jesus? Mark 10:35; John 4:34; 5:19, 20; 6:38; 12:50

How do you have a QT with God?

What are the parts of your quiet time? How does it look?

Do you have to get ready to have a quiet time?

When do you have a quiet time?

How frequently do you meet with God for your Q.T. ?

Assignment:

Create an outline how you will help a man grow in his relationship with God through a Q.T.

Develop a simple plan for each part of your outline

See: Operation Timothy, Book 2 - Chapter 6-Part 4 How Do We Spend Time with God? For additional ideas.

Questions

What is the difference between spending time with God and intimate fellowship with God?

Which would you most prefer and why?
